

ORTHO CLINICAL DIAGNOSTICS HOLDINGS PLC
RELATED PERSON TRANSACTION POLICY AND PROCEDURES

POLICY

Ortho Clinical Diagnostics Holdings plc (the “Company”) recognizes that related person transactions present a heightened risk of conflicts of interest (or the perception thereof) and therefore the Company has adopted this policy (this “Policy”) pursuant to which all Related Person Transactions (as defined below) shall be subject to approval or ratification in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Policy.

For the purposes of this Policy, a “Related Person Transaction” is a material transaction, arrangement or relationship (or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships) in which the Company (including any of its subsidiaries) was, is or will be a participant and in which any Related Person (as defined below) had, has or will have a direct or indirect material interest. A transaction involving an amount exceeding $120,000 is presumed to be a “material transaction,” though transactions involving lower amounts may be material based on the facts and circumstances. A “direct or indirect material interest” of a Related Person may arise by virtue of Control (as defined below) or significant influence of the Related Person to the transaction or by direct or indirect pecuniary interest of the Related Person in the transaction.

PROCEDURES

Audit Committee Approval

The Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) shall review the relevant facts and circumstances of each Related Person Transaction (other than pre-approved transactions as described below) and either approve or disapprove the Related Person Transaction. Such review shall include if the transaction is on terms comparable to those that could be obtained in arm’s length dealings with an unrelated third party, the extent of the Related Person’s interest in the transaction, and shall also take into account the conflicts of interest and corporate opportunity provisions of the Company’s Code of Conduct (the “Code”). Any Related Person Transaction shall be consummated and shall continue only if the Committee has approved or ratified such transaction in accordance with the guidelines set forth in this Policy. If advance Committee approval of a Related Person Transaction is not feasible, then the transaction may be preliminarily entered into by the Company upon prior approval of the transaction by the Chair of the Committee subject to ratification of the transaction by the Committee at the Committee’s next regularly scheduled meeting; provided that if ratification shall not be forthcoming, the Company shall make all reasonable efforts to cancel or annul such transaction.

Management shall present to the Committee each proposed Related Person Transaction, including all relevant facts and circumstances relating thereto and shall update the Committee as to any material developments in any approved or ratified Related Person Transaction and shall provide a status report of all then current Related Person Transactions at least annually at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Committee or as needed.

No director may participate in approval of a Related Person Transaction for which he or she is a Related Person. If a quorum of the Committee members are not disinterested with regard to a specific Related Person Transaction, the transaction shall be considered by the Board using the procedures as set forth above.

In the event that a Related Person inadvertently fails to obtain the appropriate approvals prior to engaging in a Related Person Transaction that is subject to this Policy, the Related Person shall seek ratification of the Related Person Transaction by the Committee pursuant to the procedures set forth above as soon as reasonably practicable after discovery of such oversight; provided that, if ratification shall not be forthcoming, the Company will make all reasonable efforts to cancel or annul such transaction. The Committee will also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the Related Person Transaction reporting oversight under this Policy, and shall take any such action it deems appropriate.

Pre-Approved Transactions

The Board has identified several categories of Related Person Transactions that generally do not give rise to conflicts of interest or the appearance of impropriety and, accordingly, has pre-approved each of the following types of Related Person Transactions, which shall be deemed to be approved or ratified, as applicable, under this Policy:

1. Compensation
 - (a) to an executive officer or director of the Company if the compensation is required to be reported in the Company's proxy statement pursuant to Item 402 of Regulation S-K; or
 - (b) to an executive officer of the Company who is not an Immediate Family Member (as defined below) of another Related Person, if such compensation would have been required to be reported under Item 402 as compensation earned for services to the Company if the executive was a "named executive officer" in the proxy statement and such compensation has been approved, or recommended to the Board for approval, by the Compensation Committee of the Board.
2. Transactions that are in the Company's ordinary course of business and where the interest of the Related Person arises only
 - (a) from the Related Person's position solely as a director of another corporation or organization that is a party to the transaction; or
 - (b) from the direct or indirect ownership by such Related Person and all other Related Persons, in the aggregate, of less than a 5% equity interest in another person (other than a partnership) which is a party to the transaction; or
 - (c) from both such positions described in (a) and such ownership described in (b); or
 - (d) from the Related Person's position as a limited partner in a partnership in which the Related Person and all other Related Persons, in the aggregate, have an interest of less than 5%, and the Related Person is not a general partner of and does not have another position in the partnership.
3. Transactions that are in the Company's ordinary course of business and where the interest of the Related Person arises solely from the ownership of a class of equity securities in the Company and all holders of such class of equity securities of the Company will receive the same benefit on a pro rata basis.
4. Transactions where the rates or charges involved in the transactions are determined by competitive bids.

Disclosure

All Related Person Transactions are to be disclosed in the Company's applicable filings and financial statements as required by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and related rules, and the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification Topic 850, "Related Party Disclosures." Furthermore, any material Related Person Transaction shall be disclosed to the full Board.

Other Agreements

Management shall assure that all Related Person Transactions are not in violation of and are approved in accordance with any requirements of the Company's financing or other material agreements.

Interpretation

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Policy shall be interpreted in such a manner as to comply with Item 404 of Regulation S-K and FASB Accounting Standards Codification Topic 850. In the event that a Related Person Transaction would constitute a conflict of interest or a corporate opportunity under the Code, the provisions of the Code also shall apply to such Related Person Transaction. Any such Related Person Transaction may not be approved hereunder unless it is also approved in accordance with the provisions of the Code and disclosed to the public to the extent required by law or the rules of the principal market on which the Company's common stock is traded.
